ACHIEVEMENTS IN ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Faculty Scholar for Strategic Planning (2006) During a professional development leave of absence from K-State, I am providing leadership for a strategic plan in the Families, 4-H and Nutrition Unit of the Cooperative State Research, Education and Extension Service. Responsibilities include the following:

- Review of existing priorities and analysis of current strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats, including the impact of globalization and technological change
- Investigation to identify best practices and program models that support national goals focused on improving the quality of life of individuals, families, and communities
- Synthesis of research that informs evidence-based practices and programs
- Focused program priorities and goals with strategies to enhance excellence, address issues and concerns, and optimize effective use of resources

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Dean and Professor, College of Human Ecology (1998-2006) Leadership for instruction, research and scholarship, extension, outreach and service missions in a college that includes 23 academic programs at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels in four units, including the: School of Family Studies and Human Services; Department of Apparel, Textiles and Interior Design; Department of Human Nutrition, and Department of Hotel, Restaurant, Institution Management and Dietetics.

- Facilitated development implementation of a strategic plan that focused on excellence, aligned resources with goals, and provided rewards for achieving goals
- Achieved or sustained accreditation in 11 academic programs
- Collaborated with faculty council members to initiate a comprehensive student outcomes assessment plan
- Enhanced articulation agreements with community colleges
- Provided support for an award-winning 10-university alliance that developed distance education degrees
- Implemented a plan for major gift fundraising that increased the endowment and enhanced annual giving
- Provided leadership for a facilities master plan, with completion of two significant building projects 1) an early childhood education center, and 2) Construction of a speech and hearing clinic funded

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH

Special Assistant to the Provost (1997-98) Responsibilities included academic program review coordination, community partnership development, serving as liaison to the American Council on Education and National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, and coordination of the California State University System response to welfare reform. Achievements were:

- Coordinated 18 internal academic program reviews and/or accreditation reviews
- Authored an interdisciplinary Fund of the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE) Proposal
- Authored service learning proposals to Campus Compact (funded in 1998) to institutionalize community outreach and integrated service learning within the curriculum
- Collaborated with university and community leaders to design a comprehensive economic development and poverty alleviation program to be based at the California State University, Long Beach Research and Training Park, and
- Founded the California State University Coalition for Welfare Reform in collaboration with Chancellor's Office and leaders at the Hayward and Los Angeles campuses

Founder and Director, The Urban Families Initiative (1992 to 1998) The Urban Families Initiative is a partnership of the University and community to address issues that challenge diverse neighborhoods where poverty is prevalent. Achievements include:

- Convened a collaborative network of the university, county and city government agencies, and 21 non-profit community agencies
- Authored grants funded in excess of $4,400,000, including awards from the Ford Foundation, the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, and the California Department of Social Services
- Implemented research projects focused on families in at-risk multicultural neighborhoods
- Obtained scholarships for students from diverse ethnic backgrounds

Department Chair (1988-92): I served as chair of the Department of Home Economics (now Family and Consumer Sciences) from July 1988 to August 1992, when I elected to transition into an appointment as Director of the Urban Families Initiative following a major grant award. Accomplishments included:

- Supervised 41 faculty members, 4 support staff, and 2 graduate assistants
- Coordinated services for 760 declared majors and 2,800 general education students
- Managed a 39,000 square foot building with eight scientific and technical laboratories
- Developed and implemented a strategic plan by consulting with faculty, administrators, and advisory council members
- Earned accreditation granted by the American Home Economics Association, American Dietetic Association, the Foundation of Interior Design Education and Research, and the National Association for the Education of Young Children
- Negotiated articulation partnerships with more than 50 community colleges and universities

OHIO UNIVERSITY

American Council on Education Fellow (1996-97) Achievements in leadership roles during the fellowship year included:

- Synthesized discussions and documents to bring recommendations related to eight (8) strategic themes to consensus and authored a report to the Board of Trustees
- Participated in all meetings of president and vice presidents; observed and analyzed meetings of provost's staff and dean' council, participated in special meetings of administrators
- Facilitated and compiled a report Pew Roundtable discussions
- Conducted research for the president's office related to higher education trends, funding issues, and management decisions, and
- Observed board meetings of the Council for Higher Education Accreditation, Ohio Higher Education Funding Commission, and the Ohio University Board of Trustees.
- Participated in ACE Fellows seminars and meetings

CENTRAL MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Department Chair (1983-87): Accomplishments as department chair are:

- supervised 14 faculty, two support staff members, and one graduate assistant
- coordinated academic support services for 400 majors and 600 general education students
- managed a 15,000 square foot facility with four scientific and technical laboratories
- consulted with faculty and advisory council to develop a strategic plan that supported enrollment growth, facilities renovation, increased budget allocations and unit accreditation
- established an international exchange program in the Netherlands
- authored funded grant proposals for graduate programs, faculty development, and special programs

NATIONAL COLLABORATION FOR YOUTH

Assistant Director, Youth Employment Project (1981): As Assistant Director of the Youth Employment Project at Future Homemakers of America National Headquarters, I was one of 10 management team members for a $12 million U. S. Department of Labor project funded to the National Collaboration for Youth. Responsibilities and achievements included:

- monitored and evaluated progress of local programs in 12 states
- provided professional development support and assessed performance of local program staff
- negotiated to resolve problems encountered during site visits and local program evaluation, and
- brought a national perspective of rural and urban issues, federal initiatives, leadership and management
