

College of Human Ecology International Study/Service Scholarships For Students Participating in International Study Abroad, International Study Tours or International Service Learning for Academic Credit

Scholarship Information:

1. Scholarships are for study abroad, an academic study tour for credit, or international service learning for academic credit. Students participating in service learning experiences not for academic credit are not eligible for the scholarship.
2. Recipients will be required to provide a public presentation or written report of their international experience during the semester following their trip.
3. Evidence of or potential for academic merit, campus/community involvement and financial need will be the primary selection criteria.
4. If the international study tour, study abroad or service learning experience does NOT occur for any reason, the scholarship funds will be forfeited by the student and returned to CHE.

Scholarship Eligibility:

1. The applicant must be enrolled (or intending to enroll, for prospective KSU students) in any degree program offered in the College of Human Ecology (Note: Scholarship can be paid only if student is enrolled at K-State).
2. The applicant must have a valid passport/visa or be able to obtain one in time for international travel.
3. Undergraduate Students must be full-time students (enrolled in at least 12 credit hours at Kansas State University in the regular academic semesters (Fall and Spring) during the academic semester prior to their travel).
4. Graduate Students must be full-time (enrolled in at least 6 credit hours at Kansas State University in the regular academic semesters (Fall and Spring) during the academic semester prior to their travel).
