Doctor of Philosophy

Upon admission to a doctoral program, a student confers with the head of the academic program and selects (from members of the Graduate Faculty) an advisor, or "major professor," who is certified to direct dissertations and who is willing to assume this responsibility. At the recommendation of the head of the academic program, the Dean of the Graduate School will appoint a supervisory committee consisting of the major professor, who chairs the committee, and at least three other members of the Graduate Faculty. One member of the supervisory committee must be a graduate faculty member from outside the major professor's department. On doctoral committees having co-major professors, at least one must be certified to direct dissertations. In addition to the members recommended, the Dean of the Graduate School may appoint other members from the Graduate Faculty to the supervisory committee. (See Graduate Handbook, Section 3.B.).

A full-time student must file a program before the end of the second semester of graduate study, and part-time students must do so upon completion of nine credit hours. If courses have already been taken, department codes, course numbers, course names, credits earned, and the semesters taken should be listed on the program of study exactly as they appear on the transcript(s). Dissertation research should be listed on one line with the total sum of hours. Credits to be transferred, other than a master's degree, that were earned more than seven years prior to the semester that this program is approved should not be included. If transferring the maximum 30 hours from a master's degree, please list where/when degree was completed on one line with the total sum of hours. If less than 30, please list individual courses and credit hours. Indicate where/when transfer course work was or will be completed.
