The Department of Hospitality Management and Dietetics invites applications for a 9-month instructor for a full-time regular appointment to join a dynamic team of faculty and students. Registered Dietitian Nutritionists with expertise in foodservice, management practice, or food safety are encouraged to apply.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES
- Instruction of undergraduate dietetics courses primarily through K-State’s Global Campus distance program in addition to some on-campus courses
- Development of coursework in collaboration with program faculty to address required competencies of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND)
- Service on programmatic, departmental, and other university committees

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS
- Earned master’s degree from an accredited university in dietetics, nutrition or related discipline
- Registered Dietitian Nutritionist with the Commission on Dietetic Registration
- Industry-related dietetics work experience
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Experience with student mentoring and development

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS
- Evidence of effective and innovative course development and instruction
- Experience with distance course development and instruction
- Industry-related work experience in management in dietetics, foodservice management, financial management, food safety and sustainability

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT & COLLEGE
The College of Human Ecology encompasses five units: Hospitality Management and Dietetics; Human Nutrition; Family Studies and Human Services; Apparel, Textiles and Interior Design; and Kinesiology. HMD administers both an ACEND-Accredited Didactic Program in Dietetics (with on-campus and distance degree completion options) and a campus-based Coordinated Program in Dietetics, totaling approximately 280 students. K-State participates in the online M.S. in dietetics offered by the Great Plains Interactive Distance Education Alliance (GPIDEA). On-campus Master’s and doctoral degrees in Hospitality and Dietetics Administration are also available.

HMD employees ten full-time faculty and six professionals in K-State Housing and Dining Services with joint teaching appointments. The USDA-funded Center of Excellence for Food Safety Research in Child Nutrition Programs builds on a notable departmental history of applied research.

Salary: Competitive, based on experience and qualifications

Starting Date: January or negotiable

Application Deadline: Review of applications begins July 30, 2015, continuing until the position is filled.

Send a letter of application, resume, names and contact information of three professional references, and other supporting documents to Mary Oborny; Dept. of Hospitality Management and Dietetics, 152 Justin Hall, Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS 66506. Electronic submission of application materials is preferred (hmdt@k-state.edu). A background check is required prior to employment.