

Curriculum Vitae
Andrea L. Feldkamp

TITLE: Academic Advisor, Food, Nutrition, Dietetics & Health
K-State Research & Extension 4-H/FCS Program Liaison

EDUCATION: M.S., Kansas State University, Family Life Education Consultation, 2003
B.S., Fort Hays State University, Elementary Education, 1998

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Academic Advisor, K-State Department of Food, Nutrition, Dietetics & Health (2016 to present)
K-State Research & Extension 4-H/FCS Program Liaison (2014 to present)
Academic & Student Services Coordinator, K-State College of Human Ecology (2013-2016)
Assistant Coordinator for Nutrition Education Programs, K-State Extension (2012-2013)
Riley County Extension Agent, 4-H Youth Development (2000-2012)
Cowley County Extension Agent, 4-H Youth Development (1998-2000)

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

NACADA
K-State Advisor Forum, 2014 to present, currently Secretary
Majors, Minors & More Committee, 2013 to present
Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior, 2012 to 2014
Kansas Association of Extension 4-H Youth Development Agents, October 1998 to present

- o 4-H Day with Wildcat Basketball Committee, 2009 to 2016
- o Professional Development Committee Chair, 2005 and 2011
- o Secretary, 2003-2004

Kansas Extension Agent Association, 1998 to 2012

- o Secretary/Treasurer, 2005 to 2007

Epsilon Sigma Phi, 2005 to present

- o Awards and Recognition Committee, 2009 to 2012
- o Secretary, 2007 to 2010

Marketing Action Team, 2002 to 2016

- o Secretary, 2002 to 2004 and 2006 to 2008

HONORS AND RECOGNITION:

National Association Extension 4-H Agents Team Promotional Package Award, 2012
Outstanding Faculty Mentor Award, 2008 & 2004
Distinguished Service Award, 2008
Epsilon Sigma Phi Horizon Award, 2004
Community Neighbor Article by the Manhattan Mercury, 2003
Achievement in Service Award, 2002

INVITED PRESENTATIONS:

"Out of the Box Dining," highlighting food safety and nutrition related careers for teens (2014, 2015)
"Grandparents University Food Sculptures," to grandparent/grandchild teams, (2014)
"Consumer Comparison," interactive session for Ft. Riley youth on selecting produce (2014)
"Behind the Scenes at Disney," to USD #378 administrative staff on effective customer service, (2012)
"Behind the Scenes at HyVee," to 4-H teens on deciphering food labels, careers in food industry and dietetics, (2010 to 2013).

"Monthly Youth Page Column," for Manhattan Mercury on topics related to youth, (2004 to 2012)
"Monthly Radio Program on KMAN," on topics related to youth and families, (2003 to 2012)
"Youth Impacts," to Manhattan Kiwanis membership, (2011)
"Healthy Choices," to USD #383 fifth and sixth grade students on problem solving and decision making skills, (2011)
"4-H Chef," to sixth and seventh grade students on healthy snacks on a budget, (2011)
"Marketing Kansas 4-H," to teens on branding 4-H and how to recruit new membership, (2010, 2011)
"Effective Communication, Solving Conflict and Working with Volunteers," to K-State Research and Extension Summer Interns, (2003 to 2012)
"Gingerbread Cottages on a Budget," to second through fourth grade students, (2007 to 2010)
"Child Development and Communication," to Kansas Libraries System, approximately 600, (2007)
"Iron Chef 4-H," to high school teens on quick decision-making skills and cooking, (2006, 2008, 2009)
"Effective Use of Parliamentary Procedure," to Kansas County Clerks Association, (2005)
"Behind the Scenes at Disney," to Kansas 4-H professionals on effective customer service, (2005)
"Conflict Resolution, Teen Behavior and Communication," to Ogden Youth Center volunteers, (2005)
"Providing Constructive Feedback to Youth," to adult volunteers, (2003)

PEER REVIEWED PUBLICATIONS:

"The Vegetables We Eat," a book/activity lesson for preschool and early elementary students, <http://www.he.k-state.edu/fnp/educators/bib/index.html>, (2013)
"Go, Slow and Whoa Foods," handout developed to assist consumers in food choices, (2013)
"Family Gardening," a curriculum focusing on gardening and nutrition, (2012)
"MyPlate Move More Board Game," a game featuring questions from the MyPlate groups and physical activity for three different age levels, (2012)
"How Did That Get in My Lunchbox?," a book/activity lesson for preschool and early elementary students, co-authored with Dr. Sandy Procter <http://www.he.k-state.edu/fnp/educators/bib/index.html>, (2012)
"Leader Lingo," a monthly newsletter for 40 4-H club program volunteers on topics such as financial management, safety, first aid and others, (2001 to 2012)
"Riley County 4-H Webpage," responsible for content, formatting and posts for the twelve page 4-H website section, (2005 to 2012)
"Recreational Leader Game Guide," a guide for youth activity coordinators containing instructions and supplies for game coordinating, (2011)
"4-H Project School Lesson Plans," two topic lessons entitled "Plant Science Leaf Prints" and "Sand Art Muffins," to provide a 4-H project experience for third grade students, (2011)
"Officer Installation Ceremonies," ceremonies for clubs to utilize for yearly officer installation, (2001 to 2011)
"Citizenship Washington Focus Delegate Handbook," a guide for teen delegates addressing program information, policy, dress code and legislative statistics, (2001, 2004, 2007, 2010)
"The End Result," a game for fourth grade students regarding production agriculture, (2005 to 2009)
"Snack and Physical Activity Guides," seasonal resources for 4-H clubs to incorporate regarding health, (2008 Sabbatical Project)
"Parent Influence in Developing Child Social Skills," Master's Report, (2003)
"Citizenship Washington Focus Evaluation Impacts," featured in K-State's Office of Community Health's Our Collective Work, p. 16-18, (2001)
"Celebrating with 4-H Ceremonies," three ceremonies selected for publication including, "Introduction of New 4-H Officers: Cookie Theme," p. 8, "ABC's of 4-H Service," p. 16, and "Souper Recognition for Leaders," p. 22, MF-824, (2000)